

World Anti-Bullying Forum

DUBLIN
JUNE 4 - 6, 2019

www.wabf2019.com

We are delighted to announce the 2nd World Anti-Bullying Forum will take place in Dublin from 4th – 6th June 2019

We are excited to bring you the world's largest and most important gathering of people interested in understanding and tackling bullying, cyberbullying, harassment and online safety issues among children and young people.

WABF2019 will bring together teachers, youth workers, researchers, policy makers, politicians, NGOs, scientists, parents groups, and students to explore the causes of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment and online safety as well as showcasing innovative programmes and initiatives to eliminate bullying, cyberbullying and promote online safety among children and young people.

WABF2019 promises an eclectic programme of lectures, workshops & social events for a worldwide & world-class meeting in Dublin. The organising committee will bring you an amazing programme including keynote speakers of worldwide repute. In addition there will be an opportunity to meet experts in a variety of areas in smaller sessions. There have been amazing innovations in this field in recent years & many of the people involved have agreed to share their experiences with you.

Also our partners from government, social media companies, technology and education organisation, who have supported the advances being made, are already signing up & helping to make this a world class event. It will be a truly multidisciplinary event. So please join us to celebrate & look ahead to an exciting future of innovations & developments in this important area which is integral to eliminating bullying and cyberbullying from the lives of children and young people.
